PURPOSE

1. To receive the Community Care Quarterly Report – September 2014.

BACKGROUND

2. The quarterly report is prepared in accordance with the approved Kalamunda Home and Community Care (KHACC) Business Case (2010 – 2014). The basis of which is:

“That the Home and Community Care Services provided, be within the limits of funding available and reviewed every quarter and reported to Council.”

DETAILS

3. Referrals for Home and Community Care (HACC) support are received from the Regional Assessment Service. Community Care do not screen for eligibility nor assess potential clients for services and as such, is dependent on these referrals to maintain and increase service levels.
4. Inception of the Assessment Framework in 2011 has resulted in increased compliance with eligibility criteria and people receiving services based on assessed need and not just an eligibility status, meaning a person with an ongoing functional disability may be eligible for HACC support but with the provision of the correct assistive equipment may continue to support themselves independently without formalised support.

HACC Service Delivery

5. The Volumes Report (Attachment 1) shows how Community Care is performing in relation to its contracted service provision levels for the HACC program for the period of July, August and September 2014.
6. The HACC Contract contains service groups that cluster, where appropriate, like service types together. Service Group 1 includes the following service types: domestic assistance, personal care, social support, respite and other food services.

7. Service Group 1 was contracted to provide hours of support against the service types listed in paragraph 6. This allows the service types to be adjusted to meet the needs of eligible clients regardless of the contracted number of hours against each service type.
 8. Because of this service grouping, a service type such as domestic assistance can achieve higher than 100% of service delivery, providing other service types are not also achieving 100%. The hours are used in a flexible manner to address need.
 9. During this quarter Community Care was contracted to provide 6285 hours across service group 1 to eligible community members. A total of 4471 hours were provided (71%). This is a 4% increase from last quarter.

Domestic Assistance (Service Group 1)

10. During this quarter Community Care was contracted to provide 2928 hours to eligible community members. A total of 3280 hours were provided (112%). This is an 8% increase from last quarter.
11. The 2014/2015 HACC Contract was renegotiated and saw the contracted volume for Meals on Wheels decrease and the value of that decrease was transferred to Domestic Assistance allowing an increase in the volume by an additional 54 hours per quarter.
12. Impacts on these hours included 376.5 hours that were not provided due to public holidays and clients cancelling services to attend to other commitments, illness or being hospitalised. Had these hours been provided Domestic Assistance would have achieved 124%, which would have been accommodated by the flexible delivery model assigned to Service Group 1 as detailed in paragraph 7.

In Home Respite (Service Group 1)

13. During this quarter Community Care was contracted to provide 450 hours to eligible community members. A total of 112 hours were provided (25%). This is a 3% increase from last quarter.
14. Impacts on these hours included 17 hours that were not provided due to public holidays and clients cancelling services to attend to other commitments, illness or being hospitalised. Had these hours been provided In Home Respite would have achieved 28%.

Other Food Services (Service Group 1)

15. During this quarter Community Care was contracted to provide 97 hours to eligible community members. A total of 25 hours were provided (26%). This is a 1% decrease from last quarter.
16. Impacts on these hours included 10.75 hours that were not provided due to public holidays and clients cancelling services to attend to other commitments, illness or being hospitalised. Had these hours been provided Other Food Services would have achieved 37%.

Social Support (Service Group 1)

17. During this quarter Community Care was contracted to provide 1875 hours to eligible community members. A total of 809 hours were provided (43%). This is a 3% increase from last quarter.
18. Impacts on these hours included 103.5 hours that were not provided due to public holidays and clients cancelling services to attend to other commitments, illness or being hospitalised. Had these hours been provided Social Support would have achieved 49%.

Personal Care (Service Group 1)

19. During this quarter Community Care was contracted to provide 937 hours to eligible community members. A total of 246 hours were provided (26%). This is a 5% decrease from last quarter.
20. Impacts on these hours included 51.75 hours that were not provided due to public holidays and clients cancelling services to attend to other commitments, illness or being hospitalised. Had these hours been provided Personal Care would have achieved 32%.

Centre Based Day Care (Service Group 4)

21. During this quarter Community Care was contracted to provide 9981 hours to eligible community members. A total of 8336 hours were provided (84%). This is a 7% increase from last quarter.
22. Impacts on these hours included 3366 hours that were not provided due to public holidays and clients cancelling services to attend to other commitments, illness or being hospitalised. Had these hours been provided Centre Based Day Care would have achieved 117% which would have been a 28% increase in the last quarter.

Meals on Wheels (Service Group 6)

23. During this quarter Community Care was contracted to provide 1500 meals to eligible community members. A total of 1272 meals were provided (85%). This is a 25% increase from last quarter.
24. The 2014/2015 HACC Contract was renegotiated and saw the contracted volume for Meals on Wheels decrease from 9778 per annum to 6000. This amount is considered to be more achievable based on service delivery trends. The equivalent value of the reduced 3778 meals was converted to Domestic Assistance so the Shire's Annual Funding from the Department of Health does not reduce.
25. Impacts included 90 meals that were not provided due to public holidays and clients cancelling services to attend to other commitments, illness or being hospitalised. Had these meals been provided, Meals on Wheels would have achieved 91%.

Transport (Service Group 7)

26. During this quarter Community Care was contracted to provide 6816 one way trips to eligible community members. A total of 3989 one way trips were provided (59%). This is a 2% increase from last quarter.
27. Impacts on the provision of these trips included 1191 one way trips that were not provided due to public holidays and clients cancelling services to attend to other commitments, illness or being hospitalised. Had these trips been provided Transport would have achieved 76%.

Client Support Information and Advocacy (Service Group 9)

28. During this quarter Community Care was contracted to provide 644 hours to eligible community members. A total of 265 hours were provided (28%).

Home Maintenance (Service Group 10)

29. During this quarter Community Care was contracted to provide 1792 hours to eligible community members. A total of 1549 hours were provided (86%). This is a 7% increase from last quarter.
30. Impacts on these hours included 132.5 hours that were not provided due to public holidays and clients cancelling services to attend to other commitments, illness or being hospitalised. Had these hours been provided Home Maintenance would have achieved 94%.

COMMUNITY VISITORS SCHEME

31. During this quarter Community Care was contracted to provide 270 visits to eligible community members. A total of 321 visits were provided (119%).

HOME CARE PACKAGES LEVEL 2 (Formally Community Aged Care Packages (CACP))

32. During this quarter Community Care was contracted to provide 20 packages to eligible community members. A total of 16 packages were provided (80%).
33. Referrals for packages come from the Aged Care Assessment Team (ACAT). Community Care do not screen for eligibility nor assess potential clients for services and as such, is dependent on these referrals to maintain and increase service levels.
34. Home Care Packages are being transitioned to Consumer Directed Care Packages as of 1 July 2015. Community Care are preparing an implementation plan to drive this program, procedural and cultural change.

OFFICER COMMENT

45. During this quarter Community Care had 48 clients exit the HACC program. The feedback from clients and/or family as to why the services were ceasing were:
- The client has moved to a higher level of community care support or residential care – 13 responses
 - The client is now self-managing – 16 responses
 - The client has passed away – 13 responses
 - The client has relocated out of the service area – six responses
46. In most services, there is an adequate number of clients to achieve approximately 80% or more volume, however there is always a variance in what is scheduled to be delivered and what is actually delivered.

Quality Policy

MANAGEMENT PRACTICE

Quality Policy Management Procedure
(Business Excellence Framework and Operating Guidelines)

RELEVANT DELEGATION

Rationale

Quality is important to the Shire because we value our customers. We strive to provide our customers with facilities and services which meet and even exceed their expectations. We are committed to continuous improvement and have established a Quality Framework that will support effective measurement and improvement of our performance, and allow the Shire to achieve its goals of service, professionalism and quality.

Policy

The Shire of Kalamunda aims to achieve excellence in all aspects of its operations by:

- Providing customers with high quality facilities and services which meet requirements and are fit for their purpose.
- Having regards for the standards required by ISO 9000:2005, ISO 9000:2009 and ISO 9001:2000 in operating the organisation.
- Enhancing the skills of management and staff through review and actively pursuing an on-going training and development program, with the objective of preparing staff to perform their work more effectively.
- Promoting the culture of innovation and continual quality improvements and the philosophy of getting things "right first time".
- Rigorously controlling the design, implementation and completion to program of all projects.
- Promoting the quality management systems and ensuring implementation is achieved by internal auditing, management review, corrective and preventive action.

The CEO and staff of the Shire of Kalamunda will strive to consistently provide high quality services

The benefits to be derived from the Quality Framework will include:

- Effective prioritisation of improvement efforts to deliver maximum benefits.
- Process efficiency and effectiveness through reduced waste and variation.
- An empowered and motivated workforce with increased retention.
- Increased productivity and reduced operational costs.
- Focus on customer service delivering superior perception of value.
- Sustainable performance by increasing stakeholder value.

In order to improve the quality of the facilities and services that the Shire provides, a Quality Framework has been developed.

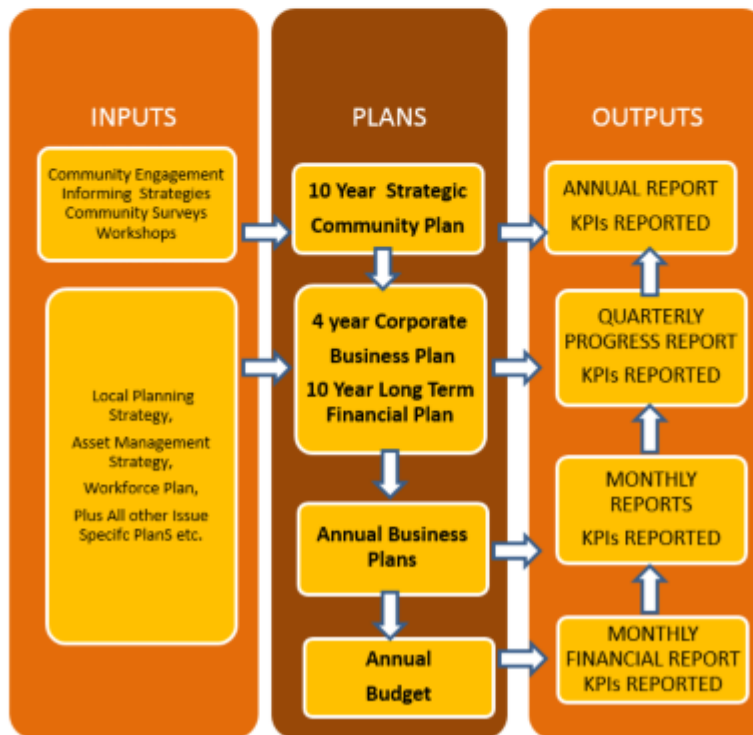

Quality Framework

The following components make up the Shire's Quality Framework:

1. STRATEGIC PLANS

The Shire's Strategic Direction is determined from its Integrated Planning framework:

The Shire's Integrated Planning Framework provides high-level strategic rolling plans for all of our activities.

The Shire's key Strategic Plans are:-

- KALAMUNDA ADVANCING – Strategic Community Plan (10 years)
- KALAMUNDA BUILDS – Asset Management Plan (10 years)
- KALAMUNDA ACCOUNTABLE – Long Term Financial Plan (10 years)
- KALAMUNDA WORKING – Strategic Workforce Plan (10 Years)
- KALAMUNDA ACHIEVING – Corporate Business Plan (4 years)

Between them, the plans set out Council's long-term plan for the Shire, and the priorities for the next 10 years. These ensure that the community's needs are met, while maintaining a sustainable and accountable Shire.

2. POLICIES AND PLANS

The purpose of a policy is to provide guidance and leadership, so that the CEO and Shire staff are able to make decisions in a consistent and transparent way, which reflect the strategic direction of Council. Specific guiding strategies and plans which have been adopted by Council also serve the same purpose – to assist decision-making and provide direction.

3. BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT PROCESSES

To maintain a high level of quality in the services it provides, the Shire has developed guidelines and will provide training to staff to promote business improvement. Examining how things are done and determining how they can be done better will lead to reduced waste and better outcomes for our customers.

4. MANAGEMENT PRACTICES AND PROCEDURES

The Shire maintains a register of management practices and procedures, which provide direction on how policies are to be implemented. These are operational, rather than strategic, documents. They are not detailed step-by-step instructions, but guidelines that ensure that activities are carried out in a clear, consistent way.

5. PROCESS MAPS AND WORK INSTRUCTIONS

Process mapping guidelines have been developed to enable staff to identify their key work processes, and the activities, actions and decisions involved in carrying out those processes.

These key processes will be mapped to show who is responsible for each step, and the sequence of steps from start to finish (generally in the form of a flowchart). Work instructions is a detailed set of instructions that describe exactly how a low-level activity must be carried out and are even more detailed, explaining exactly how a step within a process or a specific task is to be carried out.

Process maps are essential for improving the quality of our services by allowing opportunities for improvement to be identified (leading then into the business improvement process), without compromising internal control, legislative compliance and exposure to risk.

6. FORMS AND TEMPLATES

To ensure consistency in the Shire's outputs, a number of forms and templates have been developed (for example, for correspondence and for policies). These save time and effort, allowing faster response times, and ensure that consistent information is provided to our customers.

This Framework will enable the deployment of the facilities, services and projects to be made in a consistent way, which will support the strategic direction and sustainability of the Shire.

Business Excellence will be achieved through processes being identified and recorded. Opportunities for improving those processes will be identified and changes implemented. This will lead to less waste of resources, faster response times, consistent results, and ultimately improved outcomes for our customers.

Relevant Shire of Kalamunda Policy

Quality Policy

Purpose

The Shire is committed to the principles of business improvement and quality management. This procedure sets out the business excellence framework that the Shire will operate under, and provides guidelines for the mapping and improvement of the Shire's key processes.

Detail

Business Excellence Framework

The Shire will be guided by the 12 principles established by the Australian Business Excellence Framework.

The twelve principles of the Framework are:

1. Clear direction allows organisational alignment and a focus on achievement of goals.
2. Mutually agreed plans translate organisational direction into actions.
3. Understanding of what customer's value, now and into the future, influences organisational direction, strategy and action.
4. To improve the outcome, improve the system and its associated processes.
5. The potential of an organisation is realised through its people's enthusiasm, resourcefulness and participation.
6. Continual improvement and innovation depend on continual learning.
7. All people work in a system; outcomes are improved when people work on a system.
8. Effective use of facts, data and knowledge leads to improved decisions.
9. All systems and processes exhibit variability which impacts on predictability and performance.
10. Organisations provide value to the community through their actions to ensure a clean, safe, fair and prosperous society.
11. Sustainability is determined by an organisation's ability to create and deliver value for all stakeholders.
12. Senior leadership's constant role modelling of these Principles and their creation of a supportive environment to live these Principles are necessary for the organisation to reach its true potential.

The seven categories the Shire use as a framework for the organisation to review, question, analyse and assess its leadership effectiveness and impact will be:

1. Leadership
2. Strategy and Planning
3. Knowledge and Information
4. People
5. Customer and Market Focus
6. Innovation, Quality and Improvement
7. Success and Sustainability

The Shire's Quality Framework has been designed specifically to provide guidance to the organisation as to what they must address in order to achieve sustained improvement.

Everyone is responsible for quality within the Shire and for maintaining the highest standards at all times.

Operating Guidelines

Business Improvement Guidelines

Once the Shire's major processes have been mapped, the process maps can be used to identify areas for improvement. The goal is to increase efficiency and effectiveness, while providing a consistent and high quality outcome for our customers. The process map shows how we currently work. The question that needs to be answered is "how can we work better?"

How can a process map be used to make improvements?

Process mapping enables us to clearly and simply record existing processes, examine them thoroughly and develop improvements by identifying:

- Unnecessary tasks;
- Capacity issues, where more resources are required;
- Bottlenecks and delays;
- Duplication;
- Waste;
- Value for money (how much does the process cost the Shire? Could it be done cheaper?); and
- Duplication of roles (potential for reducing the number of staff involved in the process).

Once identified, this knowledge provides a solid basis from which to develop solutions and introduce and plan new improved processes.

Making system changes without truly understanding how the process is working today, and why, can lead to costly mistakes. It can also create conditions that make it difficult for staff to work effectively, and often creates further problems, such as a breakdown in the internal control environment leading to a higher risk exposure.

If you do not measure a process, you will not be able to manage it effectively and if you cannot manage a process, you cannot improve it.

In making a system change improvement, consideration needs to be given to the establishment of the internal control environment and segregation of functional activities. As part of the measurement process risk identification and assessment needs to be evaluated and mitigated.

Process Improvement

Having selected and recorded key processes, the next stage is to critically examine them, and develop new processes where necessary.

Understanding and documenting our processes can assist in answering these questions:

What does it cost?	How do we control the quality?	Who is accountable for this process?
How long does it take?	How can we eliminate non-value-added activities?	Who is responsible for improving the process?
Who does the activity?	How should we measure performance?	Do we have the right resources?
What are the results?	How is value for money assessed?	Do we have the right skills?
Does the way we do it suit our customers?	Are there any outcomes that we are not addressing?	Is systems support adequate?
How well do we do it?	How can we reduce the resource costs?	What are the opportunities?
What is the variability in the results?	What and where are the risks?	Does anyone else do this better than us?
How much hassle is it?	Does this process need to coordinate with others?	Can we learn from anyone else?

Critical examination

In many instances the thoughts and discussions required to chart existing processes will lead to easy identification of improvements. These should be noted and retained for the improvement stage. Many improvements will leap off the page once an existing process is charted.

Examine the process maps and ask the following questions:

Primary Questions	Why?	Secondary Questions	Selection
Purpose - What is achieved	Why?	What else could be achieved?	What should be achieved?
Means - How is it achieved?	Why that way?	How else could it be achieved?	How should it be achieved?
Sequence - When is it achieved?	Why then?	When could it be achieved?	When should it be achieved?
Place - Where is it achieved?	Why there?	Where else could it be achieved?	Where should it be achieved?
Person - Who achieves it?	Why that person?	Who else could achieve it?	Who should achieve it?

An alternative to examining the whole process in the way outlined above is to focus on wasted work. Wasted work means:

- Spending time doing things again which have not been done right first time;
- Duplicating effort; and
- Doing things that add no value to the organisation or its stakeholders.

Wasted work should be evident from the process maps, and discussions with both the team developing the process map and other staff.

Charting process improvements

Having completed the initial process examination and improvement stage, the new improved processes should now be charted. This is important as it can be used as a training aid for all staff and should clearly define who is responsible for each action. These charts should also form the basis of any future work aimed at improving processes further.

It is also important to remember that process mapping is merely the first stage in a continuous cycle of incremental improvement and refinement of processes which is ultimately aimed at:

- Eliminating duplication of tasks and reduction of costs;
- Improved efficiency and co-ordination of working practices;
- Reducing the transportation of materials e.g. files between locations;
- Improved quality and timeliness in the organisation; and
- Improving the effective deployment of staff.

You don't learn to process map, you process map to learn.

Process Mapping Guidelines

The Local Government Reform Toolkit recommends that the current services and functions of a local government facing reform be mapped as part of the "Planning" phase. Even if the Shire does not ultimately amalgamate, it is important for both continuous improvement and business continuity that the services that the Shire provides are set out in a clear, easy to understand manner, and that new employees joining the Shire are able to understand exactly how processes are carried out.

What is a process?

A process is the series of steps and decisions involved in completing a task. Everything we do in our lives involves processes. Here are some examples:

- Writing a work order
- Writing a report
- Paying staff
- Preparing the budget
- Ordering a part
- Producing the rates
- Serving a customer
- Managing correspondence
- Maintaining a road
- Responding to a call out
- Building a facility
- Conducting a fire drill
- Lending a book
- Registering a new gym member
- Doing an audit
- Preparing an event
- Developing staff
- Paying an invoice

What is a process map?

A process map identifies the activities, actions and decisions involved in carrying out a task. The map should show who is responsible for each step, and show the sequence of steps from start to finish. The map should be clear and easy to understand. Ideally, a brand new employee should be able to pick up the process map and know exactly where a task is at in the sequence, and how to carry it out to completion.

The structure of a process map may vary, but usually takes the form of a flow chart or a table.

Process mapping enables us to clearly and simply record existing processes, examine them thoroughly and develop improvements by:

- Eliminating unnecessary tasks
- Clarifying roles and responsibilities within the process
- Reducing delays and duplication
- Reducing the number of staff required

Why map processes?

Process maps ensure that everyone has a clear understanding of how a process is carried out, and that we do things in a consistent way. They clearly set out who is responsible for each step, providing accountability and clarification of roles.

Process maps allow continuity in the way we do things – as staff leave and new staff are employed, the map can be used as a training tool to ensure that things continue to be done in a consistent way for our customers. Most importantly, they show how we work, which allows us to find ways to improve our processes.

How do I create a process map?

Initially, each business unit will need to identify what its major processes are. What do the staff in the unit actually do? - and then outline the steps involved in completing the process.

Major processes will be those critical to the Shire's continued operation – for example, those required to manage risk; to comply with statutory requirements; to produce revenue and provide assets and services to the community.

Staff in the business unit may already have step-by-step instructions set out for their major processes. If so, these should be reviewed to ensure that they are still current, and perhaps rewritten so that all of the unit's processes are in a consistent format.

If there is no process map already in place, the process owner (see below) needs to document each step that is involved in completing the process. This record of where actions are taken, decisions are made, inspections are performed, and approvals are required becomes the process map. When teams work on processes that cross departmental lines, they may have to also refer to the relevant staff in the other business units who are involved in or affected by the process they are working on.

Involve those who are familiar with the process. All the following could potentially be involved:

- Those who DO the work;
- Other staff that are a part of the process; and
- The SUPERVISORS / MANAGERS of the process

Once the process map has been created, it needs to be tested. Carry out the task following exactly the steps shown in the process map. This should make it clear if any steps are missing or if any step is dependent on input from other staff (who need to be added to the map). Check with other staff who are involved in the process, either as participants in the process or as customers, to see if they can identify any steps that are missing or incorrect.

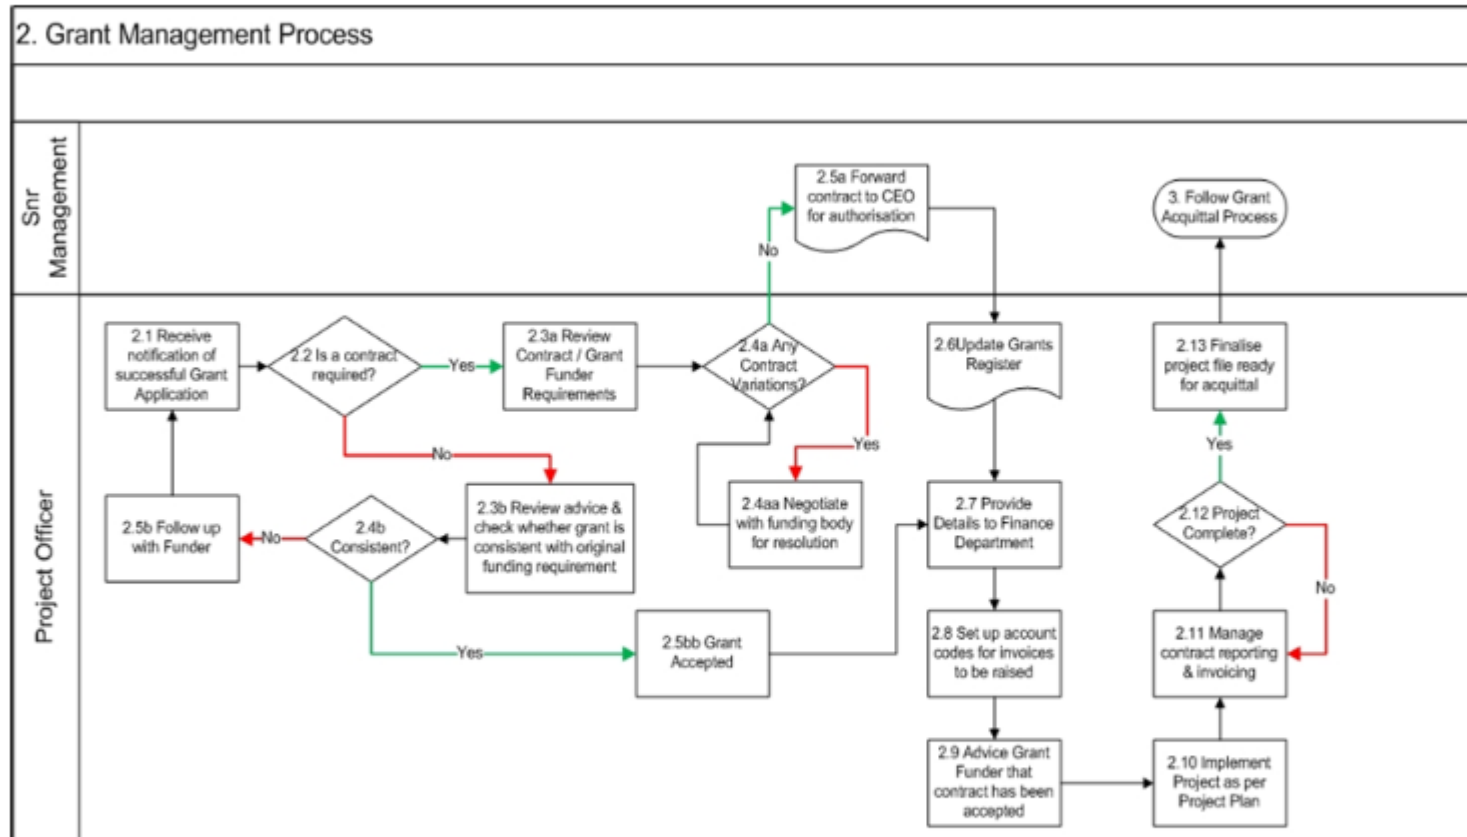

What is a process owner?

Everyone has a stake in one or more processes. Groups of individuals usually share in—and "own"—the activities which make up a process. The one individual who is ultimately responsible and accountable for the proper working of the process is known as the "process owner." The process owner is the immediate supervisor or leader who has control over the entire process from beginning to end.

2. Grant Management Process – Flowchart Approach

Process Map Conventions

In the application of mapping our processes the first process map approach can be used by all staff. It can be done in Word and is a simple approach.

Once the process map has been completed and endorsed by your manager it will be then processed into a Visio Flowchart which will become the Shire's consistent and preferred approach.

Each Business Unit will have a nominated Visio user who will assist and ensure that all process maps are transferred into the Visio flowchart and this will then be centralised into the corporate records system.

All process maps must be completed by March 2015.

OFFICER COMMENT

18. Whilst Section 5.53 of the Act stipulates the content of the Annual Report which is to be accepted by Council and utilised for statutory purposes, it is permissible to produce a modified version of the Annual Report for general community distribution.
19. A modified version of the Annual Report involves the inclusion of an abridged version of the financial statements, thereby reducing significantly the size of the Annual Report and, consequently, printing costs.
20. The abridged financial statements include:
 - Statement of Comprehensive Income by Nature and Type
 - Statement of Comprehensive Income by Program
 - Statement on Financial Position
 - Statement of Changes in Equity
 - Cash Flow Statement
 - Rate Setting Statement

22. Whilst the Development & Infrastructure Services Committee meeting is scheduled for 6.30pm on this night, the timing of previous AGM's should mean that the committee meeting will not be impacted.
